

He Rau Tumu Korero 2014 Programme

National Library, 3 July

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 8.30-9am | Registration |
| 9-9.15 | Whakatau and introduction |
| 9.15-10.45 | Broad history Aroha Harris, Is the Future of Māori History Here Now?
 Nepia Mahuika, Ngaro atu he tētēkura, whakaeke mai he tētēkura : What is the future of Māori History?
 Basil Keane, Māori in public history |
| 10.45-11.15 | Morning tea |
| 11.15-12.45 | Māori histories of war Dennis Ngawhare Pounamu, When the stones came rolling home (Werikino millstones and the New Zealand Wars)

 Puawai Cairns, Māori at Gallipoli: creating a Gallipoli threshold in an exhibition space

 Makere Rika-Heke, Heritage New Zealand and New Zealand Wars |
| 12.45-1.30 | Lunch |
| 1.30-3pm | Off the books - history on alternative media Arini Loader, HIST 101: Redux (re-presenting history in Geoff Murphy's Utu)
 Laura Kamau and Pikihuia Reihana, Ngāti Pukamata – A virtual iwi? (Facebook and Māori)
 Murray Hemi, Treaty Settlements Histories |
| 3.3.30 | Afternoon tea |
| 3.30-4.30 | Research showcase (10 minute talks) Matt Mullany – Gangs
 Paul Diamond – Cartoons as a historical source
 Leanne Tamaki - Māori Battalion Pilgrimage
 'The Afternoon After' |
| 4.30-5pm | Wrap-up |